This musical theatre production is proud to be part of Spotlight Education, a program of Hennepin Theatre Trust. Through Spotlight Education, students across Minnesota involved in their high school musical theatre programs receive professional training and guidance to enhance their artistic, technical and performing skills. Involvement in the arts helps to foster collaboration, critical thinking and self-expression — and empower the next generation of leaders.

Learn more at HennepinTheatretrust.org/Spotlight